

Toward a Better Future:
How to Leverage Strategic Partnerships to Promote Child Well-Being and Health Equity

Join a webinar led by Dr. Stephen Nicholas

Former Director of Pediatrics | Harlem Hospital Center
Retired Professor of Pediatrics and Public Health | Columbia University
Trustee | Pincus Family Foundation

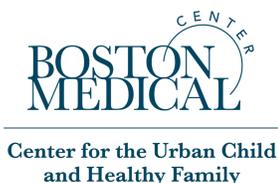

This webinar presents strategies for building bridges among diverse partners to learn how to craft a collective vision and work to support norm change for a larger shared goal. A unique and innovative multi-institutional partnership between a private grant-making foundation and its grant-funded institutions will be highlighted. Speaker Dr. Steve Nicholas will ground the discussion in his own history of building and leveraging strategic partnerships.
